Employee Training Incentive Program Tax Credit

Tax Law – Article 9-A, Section 210-B.50

General information

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, the employee training incentive program tax credit is available to eligible taxpayers who are approved to participate in the Employee Training Incentive Program (E-TIP) by Empire State Development (ESD). The program provides a tax credit to New York State employers for training investments that upgrade, retrain, or improve the productivity of their employees or for approved internship programs that provide training in advanced technologies.

The program is administered by ESD. A business entity must submit a completed application to ESD to participate in the program. For more information about the program and the application process, visit ESD's Web site (at www.esd.ny.gov).

To participate in the program, a business entity must satisfy one of the two following sets of criteria:

1. The business entity:
 - (a) must operate in New York State predominantly in a strategic industry;
 - (b) must demonstrate that it is obtaining eligible training from an approved provider;
 - (c) must create at least 10 net new jobs or make a significant capital investment in connection with the eligible training;
 - (d) must be in compliance with all worker protection and environmental laws and regulations; and
 - (e) may not owe past due state taxes or local property taxes.

or

2. (a) The business entity or an approved provider in contract with such business must be approved by ESD to provide eligible training in the form of an internship program in advanced technology; and
 - (b) The business entity:
 - (i) must be located in New York State;
 - (ii) must be in compliance with all worker protection and environmental laws and regulations;
 - (iii) may not owe past due state taxes or local property taxes; and
 - (iv) must have fewer than 100 employees.

In addition, the internship program must not displace regular employees, and the participation of an individual in an internship program must not last more than a total of 12 months.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this credit, you must meet all of the following requirements:

- you are subject to tax under Tax Law Article 9-A or 22;
- you are an approved participant or are the owner of an approved participant in the E-TIP under Economic Development Law (EDL) Article 22; and
- you have received or are the owner of a business entity that has received a certificate of tax credit issued by ESD.

Credit information

The credit is equal to 50% of a taxpayer's eligible training costs, up to a credit of $10,000 per employee who completed eligible training, plus 50% of the stipend paid to an intern, up to a credit of $3,000 per intern who completed the eligible training.

The credit will be allowed for the tax year in which the eligible training is completed.

The credit allowed cannot be greater than the amount of credit listed on the certificate of tax credit issued by ESD, or in the case of a partner in a partnership or a member of a limited liability company (LLC), its pro rata share of the amount of credit listed on the E-TIP certificate of tax credit issued to the partnership or LLC.

The credit may not reduce the tax below the fixed dollar minimum tax.

Any unused amount of credit for the current tax year will be treated as an overpayment of tax to be refunded or credited to next year's tax. Interest will not be paid on the refund or overpayment.

The credit is not allowed against the metropolitan transportation business tax (MTA surcharge) under Article 9-A.
